

I do not want New Jersey's do not call system changed. Having dinner with my family without interruptions from telemarketers is the best thing that ever happened. Please do not make any changes.